

engawa 29

If you are interested in this contributing to engawa #29, please send your article to engawainfo@engawa.es before January 30th 2022

Image proposed by Luis Martínez Santa-María

"The topic of each issue comes from one image chosen by guest proposed by one member of engawa (every issue's guest is chosen by a different member). The group don't know what image will be. This random image stops us talking about usual topics, and allows randomness of conversation. From that premise a little spy game starts, where the images become text, or vice versa. The articles will overlap or diverge, creating a tapestry where you are all invited to read, collaborate and give your opinion"

Some rules:

- The article must be original, reflective, respectful and it mustn't contain any bad language
- The article must be written in English or Spanish.
- The length of the text must be between 300 and 1.000 words. Images must be 500px wide (.doc file)
- Engawa reserves the right to publish the articles submitted.
- Please attach a short CV. (It's only for internal use)
